Energy Conservation Cell

Utilizing less energy is a choice and a practice known as energy conservation. Energy saving measures include turning off the lights when leaving a room, disconnecting appliances when not in use, and choosing to walk rather than drive.

Gaining more control over their energy cost and lowering the pressure on the planet's natural resources are the two main motivations for energy conservation.

All citizens have a moral obligation to utilize energy wisely in their daily lives, to prevent any waste, and to raise awareness of the value of energy conservation for a sustainable present and future. Our college's Energy Conservation Cell seeks to raise awareness of the prudent and economical use of energy while minimizing energy waste for a better future

Objectives of Energy Conservation Cell

- The Cell's mission is to develop methods and develop solutions that enable more efficient and non-intrusive usage of energy.
- The Cell wants to investigate more effective ways to employ renewable and clean energy sources.
- To educate children about environmental preservation and energy conservation.
- To cultivate in pupils an attitude that would make them ambassadors for spreading awareness of energy conservation.
 - Solar power
 - Bio gas plant

Anti-Ragging Committee

Gouthami Institute of Technology And Management For Women is aware of the ragging menace in the college campus and follows the UGC Regulations, Court Directives, JNT University instructions, State Act in letter and spirit to ban any and all sorts of ragging activities in the campus. Accordingly, it has initiated to take stringent action against the perpetrators by strictly enforcing the measures to prohibit, prevent and punishment for ragging.

Ragging, as defined by the Honorable Supreme Court of India in its landmark judgment in 2001, is

“Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student.”

As per the Clause - 3, UGC Regulations 2009

Ragging is an Act of abuse by spoken or written words or e-Mails or Post, Teasing or Treating Rudely with the Fresher to cause Psychological Harm, Public Insult, raise Fear or Threat or Disruption or Physical Injury, Forcing to Entertain or Financial Extortion, asking to perform Lewd Acts, Exploitation of Services, Outrage of Modesty or Sexual Assault, creating Annoyance or Apprehension or Intimidation, showing of power or authority or superiority to derive sadistic thrill or perverted pleasure by Senior Students or any conduct that affects the mental health and self confidence of a fresher or any other Student.

As per the Section 2(e) of A.P. Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997

“Ragging” means doing an act which causes or is likely to cause insult or annoyance of fear or apprehension or threat or intimidation or outrage of modesty or injury to a student.

The offence of the ragging is not only punishable under Section 4 of Andhra Pradesh Prohibition of Ragging Act 1997 but also under various provisions of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860 (Act 45 of 1860) and is a Cognizable Offence.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Ragging in any form is not only an offence but it is also a violation of human rights of the victim. The protection of Human rights acts, 1993 defines "Human Rights" as the "the rights relating to life, liberty, equality and dignity of the individual guaranteed by the constitution or embodied in the International Covenants and enforceable by courts in India". There is a well established statutory mechanism in India to enforce Human Rights. A victim of ragging can approach the State Human Rights Commission, the State Commission for scheduled castes and scheduled tribes, the state minorities commission and also the State Commission for Women, under the provisions of the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993. These commissions are empowered to inquire into the complaints, call for information or report from the Government or any or any other authority or organization, and may take any of the following steps upon the completion of an inquiry held namely:

- (1) Where the inquiry discloses, the commission of violation of human rights, or negligence in the prevention of violation of human rights by a public servant, it may recommend to the Government or authority concerned the initiation of proceedings for persecution or such other action as the commission may deem fit it against the concerned person or persons;
- (2) Approach the Supreme Court or the High Court concerned for such directions, orders or writs as that Court may deem necessary; and
- (3) Recommend to the Government or Authority concerned for the grant of such immediate interim relief to the victim or the members of his family as the commission may consider necessary.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES

Ragging is an instance of human depravity and a symbol of uncivilized behavior on the part of a person. In order to inculcate a sense of self-discipline to make all the citizens perfect human beings, the Constitution of India has incorporated 11 fundamental Duties imposed on the citizens. Any student who understands and assimilates the importance of the fundamental duties would certainly not indulge in any act of ragging. It shall be the duty of every educational institution to impart the knowledge relating to the fundamental duties to all the students and of every student to discharge such duties. If these duties are effectively discharged by the above mentioned stakeholders, ragging can be curbed effectively.

Anti-Ragging Committee

Gouthami Institute of Technology And Management For Women is aware of the ragging menace in the college campus and follows the UGC Regulations, Court Directives, JNT University instructions, State Act in letter and spirit to ban any and all sorts of ragging activities in the campus. Accordingly, it has initiated to take stringent action against the perpetrators by strictly enforcing the measures to prohibit, prevent and punishment for ragging.

Ragging, as defined by the Honorable Supreme Court of India in its landmark judgment in 2001, is

“Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student.”

As per the Clause - 3, UGC Regulations 2009

Ragging is an Act of abuse by spoken or written words or e-Mails or Post, Teasing or Treating Rudely with the Fresher to cause Psychological Harm, Public Insult, raise Fear or Threat or Disruption or Physical Injury, Forcing to Entertain or Financial Extortion, asking to perform Lewd Acts, Exploitation of Services, Outrage of Modesty or Sexual Assault, creating Annoyance or Apprehension or Intimidation, showing of power or authority or superiority to derive sadistic thrill or perverted pleasure by Senior Students or any conduct that affects the mental health and self confidence of a fresher or any other Student.

As per the Section 2(e) of A.P. Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997

“Ragging” means doing an act which causes or is likely to cause insult or annoyance of fear or apprehension or threat or intimidation or outrage of modesty or injury to a student.

The offence of the ragging is not only punishable under Section 4 of Andhra Pradesh Prohibition of Ragging Act 1997 but also under various provisions of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860 (Act 45 of 1860) and is a Cognizable Offence.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Ragging in any form is not only an offence but it is also a violation of human rights of the victim. The protection of Human rights acts, 1993 defines "Human Rights" as the "the rights relating to life, liberty, equality and dignity of the individual guaranteed by the constitution or embodied in the International Covenants and enforceable by courts in India". There is a well established statutory mechanism in India to enforce Human Rights. A victim of ragging can approach the State Human Rights Commission, the State Commission for scheduled castes and scheduled tribes, the state minorities commission and also the State Commission for Women, under the provisions of the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993. These commissions are empowered to inquire into the complaints, call for information or report from the Government or any or any other authority or organization, and may take any of the following steps upon the completion of an inquiry held namely:

- (1) Where the inquiry discloses, the commission of violation of human rights, or negligence in the prevention of violation of human rights by a public servant, it may recommend to the Government or authority concerned the initiation of proceedings for persecution or such other action as the commission may deem fit it against the concerned person or persons;
- (2) Approach the Supreme Court or the High Court concerned for such directions, orders or writs as that Court may deem necessary; and
- (3) Recommend to the Government or Authority concerned for the grant of such immediate interim relief to the victim or the members of his family as the commission may consider necessary.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES

Ragging is an instance of human depravity and a symbol of uncivilized behavior on the part of a person. In order to inculcate a sense of self-discipline to make all the citizens perfect human beings, the Constitution of India has incorporated 11 fundamental Duties imposed on the citizens. Any student who understands and assimilates the importance of the fundamental duties would certainly not indulge in any act of ragging. It shall be the duty of every educational institution to impart the knowledge relating to the fundamental duties to all the students and of every student to discharge such duties. If these duties are effectively discharged by the above mentioned stakeholders, ragging can be curbed effectively.

Anti-Ragging Committee

Gouthami Institute of Technology And Management For Women is aware of the ragging menace in the college campus and follows the UGC Regulations, Court Directives, JNT University instructions, State Act in letter and spirit to ban any and all sorts of ragging activities in the campus. Accordingly, it has initiated to take stringent action against the perpetrators by strictly enforcing the measures to prohibit, prevent and punishment for ragging.

Ragging, as defined by the Honorable Supreme Court of India in its landmark judgment in 2001, is

“Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student.”

As per the Clause - 3, UGC Regulations 2009

Ragging is an Act of abuse by spoken or written words or e-Mails or Post, Teasing or Treating Rudely with the Fresher to cause Psychological Harm, Public Insult, raise Fear or Threat or Disruption or Physical Injury, Forcing to Entertain or Financial Extortion, asking to perform Lewd Acts, Exploitation of Services, Outrage of Modesty or Sexual Assault, creating Annoyance or Apprehension or Intimidation, showing of power or authority or superiority to derive sadistic thrill or perverted pleasure by Senior Students or any conduct that affects the mental health and self confidence of a fresher or any other Student.

As per the Section 2(e) of A.P. Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997

“Ragging” means doing an act which causes or is likely to cause insult or annoyance of fear or apprehension or threat or intimidation or outrage of modesty or injury to a student.

The offence of the ragging is not only punishable under Section 4 of Andhra Pradesh Prohibition of Ragging Act 1997 but also under various provisions of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860 (Act 45 of 1860) and is a Cognizable Offence.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Ragging in any form is not only an offence but it is also a violation of human rights of the victim. The protection of Human rights acts, 1993 defines "Human Rights" as the "the rights relating to life, liberty, equality and dignity of the individual guaranteed by the constitution or embodied in the International Covenants and enforceable by courts in India". There is a well established statutory mechanism in India to enforce Human Rights. A victim of ragging can approach the State Human Rights Commission, the State Commission for scheduled castes and scheduled tribes, the state minorities commission and also the State Commission for Women, under the provisions of the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993. These commissions are empowered to inquire into the complaints, call for information or report from the Government or any or any other authority or organization, and may take any of the following steps upon the completion of an inquiry held namely:

- (1) Where the inquiry discloses, the commission of violation of human rights, or negligence in the prevention of violation of human rights by a public servant, it may recommend to the Government or authority concerned the initiation of proceedings for persecution or such other action as the commission may deem fit it against the concerned person or persons;
- (2) Approach the Supreme Court or the High Court concerned for such directions, orders or writs as that Court may deem necessary; and
- (3) Recommend to the Government or Authority concerned for the grant of such immediate interim relief to the victim or the members of his family as the commission may consider necessary.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES

Ragging is an instance of human depravity and a symbol of uncivilized behavior on the part of a person. In order to inculcate a sense of self-discipline to make all the citizens perfect human beings, the Constitution of India has incorporated 11 fundamental Duties imposed on the citizens. Any student who understands and assimilates the importance of the fundamental duties would certainly not indulge in any act of ragging. It shall be the duty of every educational institution to impart the knowledge relating to the fundamental duties to all the students and of every student to discharge such duties. If these duties are effectively discharged by the above mentioned stakeholders, ragging can be curbed effectively.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Ragging in any form is not only an offence but it is also a violation of human rights of the victim. The protection of Human rights acts, 1993 defines "Human Rights" as the "the rights relating to life, liberty, equality and dignity of the individual guaranteed by the constitution or embodied in the International Covenants and enforceable by courts in India". There is a well established statutory mechanism in India to enforce Human Rights. A victim of ragging can approach the State Human Rights Commission, the State Commission for scheduled castes and scheduled tribes, the state minorities commission and also the State Commission for Women, under the provisions of the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993. These commissions are empowered to inquire into the complaints, call for information or report from the Government or any or any other authority or organization, and may take any of the following steps upon the completion of an inquiry held namely:

- (1) Where the inquiry discloses, the commission of violation of human rights, or negligence in the prevention of violation of human rights by a public servant, it may recommend to the Government or authority concerned the initiation of proceedings for persecution or such other action as the commission may deem fit it against the concerned person or persons;
- (2) Approach the Supreme Court or the High Court concerned for such directions, orders or writs as that Court may deem necessary; and
- (3) Recommend to the Government or Authority concerned for the grant of such immediate interim relief to the victim or the members of his family as the commission may consider necessary.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES

Ragging is an instance of human depravity and a symbol of uncivilized behavior on the part of a person. In order to inculcate a sense of self-discipline to make all the citizens perfect human beings, the Constitution of India has incorporated 11 fundamental Duties imposed on the citizens. Any student who understands and assimilates the importance of the fundamental duties would certainly not indulge in any act of ragging. It shall be the duty of every educational institution to impart the knowledge relating to the fundamental duties to all the students and of every student to discharge such duties. If these duties are effectively discharged by the above mentioned stakeholders, ragging can be curbed effectively.

 - Every institution must have an Anti-Ragging Committee and an Anti - Ragging Squad. There should be a Monitoring Cell on Ragging at the University Level that would coordinate with the affiliated colleges and institutions under its domain. There should be a Monitoring Cell at the level of the Chancellor of the State Universities.
 - In the, light of the increasing number of private commercially managed, lodges or hostels outside campuses, such hostels and management must be registered with the local police authorities and permission to start such hostels or register them must necessarily be recommended by the Heads of educational institutions. It should be mandatory for both local police, local administration as well the institutional authorities to ensure vigil on incidents that may come within the definition of ragging.
 - Wardens must be accessible at all hours and therefore it is important that they, be available on telephone and other modes of communication. Similarly, the telephone numbers of the other important functionaries - Heads of institutions, faculty members, members of the anti-ragging committees, district and sub-divisional authorities and state authorities where relevant, should also be widely disseminated for the needy to get in touch or seek help in emergencies.
