Anti-Ragging Committee

Gouthami Institute of Technology And Management For Women is aware of the ragging menace in the college campus and follows the UGC Regulations, Court Directives, JNT University instructions, State Act in letter and spirit to ban any and all sorts of ragging activities in the campus. Accordingly, it has initiated to take stringent action against the perpetrators by strictly enforcing the measures to prohibit, prevent and punishment for ragging.

Ragging, as defined by the Honorable Supreme Court of India in its landmark judgment in 2001, is

“Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student.”

As per the Clause - 3, UGC Regulations 2009

Ragging is an Act of abuse by spoken or written words or e-Mails or Post, Teasing or Treating Rudely with the Fresher to cause Psychological Harm, Public Insult, raise Fear or Threat or Disruption or Physical Injury, Forcing to Entertain or Financial Extortion, asking to perform Lewd Acts, Exploitation of Services, Outrage of Modesty or Sexual Assault, creating Annoyance or Apprehension or Intimidation, showing of power or authority or superiority to derive sadistic thrill or perverted pleasure by Senior Students or any conduct that affects the mental health and self confidence of a fresher or any other Student.

As per the Section 2(e) of A.P. Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997

“Ragging” means doing an act which causes or is likely to cause insult or annoyance of fear or apprehension or threat or intimidation or outrage of modesty or injury to a student.

The offence of the ragging is not only punishable under Section 4 of Andhra Pradesh Prohibition of Ragging Act 1997 but also under various provisions of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), 1860 (Act 45 of 1860) and is a Cognizable Offence.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Ragging in any form is not only an offence but it is also a violation of human rights of the victim. The protection of Human rights acts, 1993 defines "Human Rights" as the "the rights relating to life, liberty, equality and dignity of the individual guaranteed by the constitution or embodied in the International Covenants and enforceable by courts in India". There is a well established statutory mechanism in India to enforce Human Rights. A victim of ragging can approach the State Human Rights Commission, the State Commission for scheduled castes and scheduled tribes, the state minorities commission and also the State Commission for Women, under the provisions of the Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993. These commissions are empowered to inquire into the complaints, call for information or report from the Government or any or any other authority or organization, and may take any of the following steps upon the completion of an inquiry held namely:

- (1) Where the inquiry discloses, the commission of violation of human rights, or negligence in the prevention of violation of human rights by a public servant, it may recommend to the Government or authority concerned the initiation of proceedings for persecution or such other action as the commission may deem fit it against the concerned person or persons;
- (2) Approach the Supreme Court or the High Court concerned for such directions, orders or writs as that Court may deem necessary; and
- (3) Recommend to the Government or Authority concerned for the grant of such immediate interim relief to the victim or the members of his family as the commission may consider necessary.

RAGGING - A VIOLATION OF FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES

Ragging is an instance of human depravity and a symbol of uncivilized behavior on the part of a person. In order to inculcate a sense of self-discipline to make all the citizens perfect human beings, the Constitution of India has incorporated 11 fundamental Duties imposed on the citizens. Any student who understands and assimilates the importance of the fundamental duties would certainly not indulge in any act of ragging. It shall be the duty of every educational institution to impart the knowledge relating to the fundamental duties to all the students and of every student to discharge such duties. If these duties are effectively discharged by the above mentioned stakeholders, ragging can be curbed effectively.
